★ STORY PROMPTS ★

with

Pippa Curnick

There are four things you will need before you can write a good story:

A pen    Some paper    A BIG imagination    Snacks

Got all of those? Then let's go! Pick one (or more) of the prompts below and let your imagination go WILD!

★ The cute hamster you bought at the pet shop seems to have magical powers... ★

★ You're about to go on an expedition into the Unknown World, but you only have space in your bag for three items. What do you take? What do you do with the items once you're there? ★

★ You wake up one morning to find a baby dragon asleep on your pillow. You're late for school. What do you do? ★

★ Your teacher is off sick and you have a substitute you've never met before. Something about him is a little...strange...and you're sure you saw him mix worms into his pasta salad at lunch time... ★

Why not ask an adult to share your story on social media?
